Vizsla Copper Enters into Marketing Agreement with Capitaliz

Vancouver, British Columbia – October 9, 2025 – Vizsla Copper Corp. (TSXV: VCU) (OTCQB: VCUFF) (the “Company”) is pleased to announce that it has entered into a Consulting Services Agreement (the “Agreement”) with 1123963 B.C. Ltd. (d.b.a. Capitaliz), dated effective October 1, 2025, for an initial term of three (3) months, with a total marketing budget of $600,000 CAD.

At the time of this agreement, neither Capitaliz nor any of its affiliates or associates hold any securities of Vizsla Copper. Capitaliz is an arm’s-length party to Vizsla Copper and has no other relationship with the Company other than as disclosed herein and pursuant to this agreement.

Under the Agreement, Capitaliz will provide a range of marketing and investor relations services to Vizsla Copper, including the development of a corporate marketing strategy, coordination of public relations, digital media and investor awareness campaigns, and introductions to Capitaliz’s extensive network of financial media and investor contacts.

The services will include programmatic digital advertising, social media marketing, influencer outreach, targeted email campaigns, and distribution of editorial and video content across leading financial platforms such as MarketWatch, The Globe and Mail, Apple News, MSN, and Barchart.

The Agreement is subject to the Company’s filing requirements with the TSX Venture Exchange (“TSXV”) and approval by the TSXV.

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

The information contained herein contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and “forward-looking information” within the meaning of applicable Canadian securities legislation. “Forward-looking information” includes, but is not limited to, statements with respect to the activities, events or developments that the Company expects or anticipates will or may occur in the future, including, without limitation, planned exploration activities. Generally, but not always, forward-looking information and statements can be identified by the use of words such as “plans”, “expects”, “is expected”, “budget”, “scheduled”, “estimates”, “forecasts”, “intends”, “anticipates”, or “believes” or the negative connotation thereof or variations of such words and phrases or state that certain actions, events or results “may”, “could”, “would”, “might” or “will be taken”, “occur” or “be achieved” or the negative connotation thereof. Forward-looking statements in this news release include, among others, statements relating to the Company’s exploration plans.

Such forward-looking information and statements are based on numerous assumptions, including among others, that the results of planned exploration activities are as anticipated, the anticipated cost of planned exploration activities, that general business and economic conditions will not change in a material adverse manner, that financing will be available if and when needed and on reasonable terms, that third party contractors, equipment and supplies and governmental and other approvals required to conduct the Company’s planned exploration activities will be available on reasonable terms and in a timely manner. Although the assumptions made by the Company in providing forward-looking information or making forward-looking statements are considered reasonable by management at the time, there can be no assurance that such assumptions will prove to be accurate.

Forward-looking information and statements also involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties and other factors, which may cause actual events or results in future periods to differ materially from any projections of future events or results expressed or implied by such forward-looking information or statements, including, among others: negative operating cash flow and dependence on third party financing, uncertainty of additional financing, no known mineral reserves or resources, the limited operating history of the Company, the influence of a large shareholder, aboriginal title and consultation issues, reliance on key management and other personnel, actual results of exploration activities being different than anticipated, changes in exploration programs based upon results, availability of third party contractors, availability of equipment and supplies, failure of equipment to operate as anticipated; accidents, effects of weather and other natural phenomena and other risks associated with the mineral exploration industry, environmental risks, changes in laws and regulations, community relations and delays in obtaining governmental or other approvals.

Although the Company has attempted to identify important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking information or implied by forward-looking information, there may be other factors that cause results not to be as anticipated, estimated or intended. There can be no assurance that forward-looking information and statements will prove to be accurate, as actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated, estimated or intended. Accordingly, readers should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements or information. The Company undertakes no obligation to update or reissue forward-looking information as a result of new information or events except as required by applicable securities laws.
